

Required documentation for diploma thesis and diploma exam submitted at least twelve days before the diploma exam in Dean office

1. The final version of dissertation printed from APD system, containing the page numbers resulted from the APD system (two-sided printing, font not larger than 12, spacing between lines not larger than 1.5) together with appendices framed with cardboard; the edge of the dissertation in the colour defined in the Wrocław University statute for the Faculty of Chemistry (the colour of honey).
2. The declaration of the Authorship and the declaration of personal data, which will be indicated on the diploma. The statement of the author (authors) should be placed in the last page of the diploma thesis.
3. After dissertation acceptance in the APD system it's electronic version should be also delivered in two formats: DOC or PDF and TXT- with the UTF-8 coding to be checked in a plagiarism program. The description of the CD or DVD plate: Student's name and surname, her/his ID Number; The description of the paper envelope: name and surname of the supervisor, examiner of the thesis, the title of bachelor or master dissertation).
4. Student's obligation card – settled obligations toward the library
5. Transcripts of completed courses and grades for each semester (printed from the USOS Web system) checked and confirmed by a student. In case of having had courses credited from previous education,85 transcripts of those must be also provided.
6. Four diploma photos black and white, size 45 mm x 65 mm with name and surname on the back of each photo.
7. The diploma fee receipt of payment (60PLN). The fee must be paid prior to receiving the diploma to individual student subaccount number. (Please remember to include your name and fee description in the payment memo. Bring the proof of payment along when picking up your diploma).
8. Student card (given back in the thesis defence day) apart from the student of Bachelor's program who will continue the Master study
9. Additional information, which must be included in supplement